Russia Boycotts UN Council Meet

NEW YORK, May 8.—(BUP)—The United Nations Security Council today adopted a resolution deferring further consideration of the Iranian case until Iran can confirm evacuation of Russian troops but called for "as complete a report as possible" at least by May 20.

By R. H. SHACKFORD
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

NEW YORK, May 8.—(BUP)—Soviet Russia again boycotted United Nations Security Council consideration of Iran today and the United States proposed that the council keep the Iranian case on its agenda until the Iranian government can report definitely that all Red Army troops have left all of Iran.

Iranian ambassador Hussein Alai told the council his government cannot confirm evacuation of Russian troops from Iran's Azerbaijan province on the Soviet border because of Russian "interferences."

U. S. delegate Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., noted the Iranian complaint that it had not been able to determine for itself whether Russian troops had left northern Iran—as promised by the Russians, by last Monday. He then submitted a formal resolution which, if adopted, would:

1. Defeat further proceedings on the Iranian matter by the council, more time to determine whether Russian troops have really left.

2. Call for an Iranian report under any circumstances by May 20.

Printers Granted Forty-Hour Week

Application to the federal government's War Labor Board for a 40-hour week with the same take-home pay for printers employed in Edmonton's job printing plants, has been approved, according to an announcement made Wednesday by H. E. Bendickson, executive officer for the board.

THE PRINTERS also gained the right for a week's annual holiday with pay for those regularly employed, but the latter concession was agreed on by the employers following negotiation, since action in 1945 does not fall within the purview of the labor board.

In 1945, however, the Board did have jurisdiction over the provision of holidays with pay, a right which it no longer possesses. At that time the awarding of the holiday was included in an agreement accepted by both employers and employees.

Bookbinders, compositors and pressmen are covered by the ruling of the board.

This boosts the top rate of pay in the trade to $106.23 cents an hour for a 40-hour week. The pay previously was 97 cents an hour and the work-week 44 hours.

The printers had also requested that they receive a day's pay for six of the country's holiday days, even though they did not work on those dates. This plea was rejected but it was agreed that payment for work actually done during a statutory holiday should be at double the rate for regular time.

Appointment Board on Motion Pictures

Alberta's new film censorship board has commenced its duties, Hon. J. A. Hooke, provincial secretary, announced Wednesday. Mrs. J. McCall, who has been acting as chief censor since the retirement of Peter Pearson last fall, is chairman of the new board. She is assisted by P. J. A. Fleming, formerly officer commanding the Camrose and Durnan Canadian Army training centres and Gordon Geldart, chief of the film censorship amendment law branch.

Mr. Geldart's appointment means that he will carry on the duties of both offices.

Toronto May Ban Heating Buildings

By The Canadian Press

Toronto Board of Control today will consider a recommendation that the heat be cut off in public buildings in Toronto as a coal conservation measure—one of many repercussions as the six weeks' old soft coal strike in the United States began to have serious effects on Canadian industry.

Due to Coal Strike Sees Curtailment Some Industries

OTTAWA, May 8.—(CP)—Reconstruction Minister Howe said today in the Commons that unless coal production is resumed in the United States soon the situation in Canada "will become very serious, and some industries will have to curtail their activities."

Replying to Howard Green (PC Vancouver South), Mr. Howe said the domestic fuel situation for next winter was more alarming than at any time during the war years.

THE IMPACT of the United States coal strike was being delayed because of the substantial stock piles built up by industries in Canada.

Still Deadlocked Mine Strike Hits Industries in U.S.

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(AP)—John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers (AFL) refused to budge an inch today from their original contract demands, forcing even more stringent government controls over the United States' fast dwindling soft coal supplies.

Industry was hit harder.

FORD MOTOR Company, suspended "virtually all operations" indefinitely because of the coal strike, curtailed rail transportation and parts shortages. The shutdown hit 110,000 workers. Chrysler Corporation, indicated it may follow suit.

Against such a background, federal mediator Paul W. Fuller redoubled efforts to break the negotiations deadlock between Mr. Lewis and the mine operators and said the 28-day-old stoppage in coal production would cost the country $2,000,000 in holiday overtime which the miners insist is due.

In legislative circles congressional session was shorter, and support gathered behind demands that strike control legislation get No. 1 priority unless a prompt end to the coal shutdown is effected.

Senate Defeats Loan Amendment

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(BUP)—The senate today rejected a demand that Great Britain give the United States the right to war-time military bases in exchange for the pending $3,750,000,000 loan.

The demand for the bases was defeated by the narrow margin of 45 to 40.

THE AMENDMENT was sponsored by Sen. Ernest W. McFarland, D. Ariz. It attracted the support of virtually every senate opponent of the proposed loan.

Administration leaders considered it the strongest of half a dozen proposed amendments. They believed its defeat meant ultimate senate approval of the loan without restrictions.

Consolidated Buys 2 Ammonia Plants

OTTAWA, May 8.—(CP)—Reconstruction Minister Howe yesterday announced the sale of plants at Trail, B.C., and Calgary, used during the war for the production of ammonia for explosives, to Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Ltd. The plants sold for $7,500,000.

No War Anywhere But Many Conflicts Exist

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Diplomatic Reporter

The world observed the first anniversary of victory in Europe today without war anywhere—but also without peace.

IN FACT, the best estimate of diplomatic authorities in Washington is it may be seven years before real conditions of peace are restored among countries. The prospect that they may have been darkened by the evident failure of the foreign ministers' conference in Paris to make progress on European peace settlements.

The situation in Europe is anything but peaceful. The Chinese Communists and the Central government; and in the Middle East by the tensions over the Yom Kippur crisis involving armistice proposals for admission of 100,000 Jewish refugees to Palestine.

There is widespread belief among diplomats that the Paris foreign ministers' conference actually may result in splitting Europe for a long time between the western allies and Russia, rather than in uniting it in friendship.

CONFLICT EXISTS even on the relief of millions suffering by food shortages due partly to crop failures and partly to economic upheavals caused by the war. Russia has refrained from participating in allied grain pools or even making available to occupied nations the information as to

Nickel Reserves in Canada Ample, Declares Executive

In an age geared to high speed and metal alloys, Canada is in the extremely fortunate position of having ample reserves of the key mineral, nickel, with no danger of running short within the next 50 years, C. E. Macdonald, executive with International Nickel Company of Canada Ltd., said in an interview here Wednesday.

MR. MACDONALD, who started out as a hard rock miner, is one of his frequent information-gathering tours of Canada. Although his offices are located in Toronto he spends a good deal of time travelling throughout the country, as he puts it, "just to find out what the people are thinking and talking about."

The nickel company official is accompanied by G. Warren Brown, president of the Canadian Nickel advertising agency of Montreal, the firm handling the placing of advertising for International Nickel.

THE OFFICIALS planned to leave for the west Wednesday night following visits with business contacts here.

At Meeting Lamont Rejects $5,000 Request

Request of the Alberta Farmers' Union for a grant of about $5,000 to cover membership of farmers in the district in that organization was turned down after lengthy discussion by the Municipal District of Lamont Tuesday evening, according to word received in Edmonton Wednesday.

IT WAS ESTIMATED that the decision not to make the grant was effective for this year and that there was a possibility of the matter again coming under discussion in 1947.

The decision was reached Tuesday after individual farmers had protested that such a move on the part of the council would make for compulsory membership in the AFU.

MICHAEL T. NEMERSKY, secretary-treasurer of the council, pointed out that no organized group of farmers had opposed granting the request and that no official protest had been lodged with the council.

Disapproval with the scheme however was voiced by individual farmers in the district speaking on the subject.

IN AN INTERVIEW with J. W. Judge, deputy minister of municipal affairs at Edmonton Wednesday, it was learned that the council's membership in any organization such as the AFU is considered a matter of local arrangement between the council and the ratepayers. It was debatable if councils have the power to make such arrangements, however. "If a strong minority disagreed, there would probably be a lot of difficulty," Mr. Judge explained.

It is the company's intention to erect a distributing and storage warehouse on this property. The cost of the building was not disclosed, but it was intimated that construction would start as soon as possible.

Edmonton Child Drowns at Brooks

BROOKS, May 8.—(CP)—Three-year-old Richard Stowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stowe, Edmonton, was drowned yesterday when he fell into a stock watering pool on the farm of his grandparents, 12 miles west of here.

Richard was visiting the grandparents with his father and mother.

HE IS BELIEVED to have fallen into the seven foot deep pool about 1:30 p.m. and the body was recovered half an hour later by Mr. Hobson and a son, an uncle of the dead boy.

They applied artificial respiration but were unable to revive him. Mr. G. Claxton, coroner, said no inquest will be held.

He said the boy had been playing with his two cousins, June and Jack Hobson, of about the same age, at the time of the accident. The pool is about 40 yards long and 30 yards wide and is fed by irrigation water.

Richard's father received his discharge from the army in Calgary Monday and drove to Brooks with his family Monday night.

Parley Failure Hits Health Plans

TORONTO, May 8.—(CP)—Failure to reach agreement at the Dominion-provincial conference meant postponement and perhaps revision of federal government health plans. Hon. Brooke Claxton, minister of national health and welfare, last night told the annual meeting of the Canadian Public Health Association.

"THE DOMINION'S proposals to the provinces included assistance to the provinces desiring it in the provision by stages of hospital, medical and nursing services to all the people, and an offer to pay half the cost of bringing down the age at which pensions would be paid to the blind to 21 years, as well as providing for treatment in cases where blindness might be prevented or cured," he said.

"The health proposals also included grants to the provinces totalling more than $600,000 to complete studies leading up to the introduction of health insurance and more general health services, and an offer to lend money at, or slightly above, cost for hospital construction."

"On the welfare side, the Dominion's proposals included an offer to pay 85 per cent of unemployment insurance benefits to provinces, and to pay pensions up to $30 a month for those needing them. The federal government was prepared to introduce old age pensions of $30 a month to everyone at age 70."

SIR WILSON JAMESON, chief medical officer of the British health ministry, said the new national health service bill of the Attlee government in Great Britain is not intended to abolish private medical practice. A family could call in its own doctor, and his services would be reinforced by those of specialists and technicians.

Ford Operations To Be Shut Down

DETROIT, May 8.—(AP)—The Ford Motor Company announced last yesterday that "virtually all operations of the Ford Company will be suspended indefinitely beginning Wednesday night due to the coal strike, a shortage of parts and railroad transportation."

"The railroad tieup, which becomes effective at midnight Thursday and which in turn is caused by the coal strike, dispelled our final hopes of continuing production at this time," declared M. L. Bricker, vice-president in charge of manufacturing.

"IN ADDITION the Chicago brownout, which limits all production in that area to 24 hours a week, is affecting 40 or more of our suppliers," the Ford statement said. It said Ford's coal and scrap stock is "dangerously low."

The shutdown will affect an estimated 100,000 Ford workers.

Mr. Carter's reaction was: "I don't think you could ever buy that utility for $47,000,000." He said he believed the company might be interested in a price which would give the common shareholders between $24-$29 a share.

There should be little question as to the physical ability of the province to provide these benefits, Mr. Manning said. He suggested it also should be financially possible.

He outlined the provisions of the Bill of Rights for the setting up of the Alberta Capital Assets Account, a monetized valuation of all the province's resources, potential and developed, and of the Consolidated Credit Adjustment Fund, which would be regulated by the five-man board of credit commissioners, provision for which is made in the bill.

The adjustment fund would be so constituted that it would provide for the difference in purchasing power and in the prices of goods payable so as to balance these figures.

The amount in the adjustment fund would be determined by the general revenue fund of the province in the form of credit. Mr. Manning explained that the money would be paid from there in the regular manner that money in that account is handled. It would be used for the payment of pensions and medical and educational benefits.

Dynamite Hurl'd Into East Brewery

MONTREAL, May 8.—(CP)—Two packages of dynamite were hurled into the National Breweries' plant terminal on St. James street west early today, marking the third "bombing attack" on the company's property since April 30.

No one was injured but the property damage was clearcut. One of the dynamite-filled bundles exploded, causing a hole 20 inches square while the other had its hissing fuse removed by a CNR policeman.

A partial strike has been in effect at National Breweries' plants since March 28, but the company has denounced the work stoppage as an illegal strike and production was brought up to normal. The International Union of United Brewery Workers (IUBW) has demanded a wage increase and a shorter working week.

Winnipeg Hydro Refuses to Sell

WINNIPEG, May 8.—(CP)—An offer of $47,000,000 for the Winnipeg Electric Company was unofficially made and unofficially refused at a meeting yesterday of the city's special committee on street railway matters.

THE OFFER CAME when the committee reached a deadlock in its discussions and decided to get the company's reaction to a bid. It called in President W. H. Carter, and Alderman Jack Penner made the offer.

Mr. Carter's reaction was: "I don't think you could ever buy that utility for $47,000,000." He said he believed the company might be interested in a price which would give the common shareholders between $24-$29 a share.

Body Under Water For Many Years

KENORA, Ont., May 8.—(CP)—A body believed to be that of a man, found in Long Lake in the Vermilion Bay district 30 miles east of here, last night confronted Ontario provincial police with problems of identification. From appearances, it had been in the water for years. Remnants of a man's coat and vest were found wired to the body, indicating it possibly had been weighted down.

operation of this and similar acts. To this end he urged a study of the provisions of the bill.

He asked that any suggested amendments be given to the government that it would be agreed with the wishes of the people. The government was only anxious that the bill should truly reflect what the people of the country want.

THEN IF THE PEOPLE are united their desires, laws and constitutions could be quickly changed. The object of placing the bill before the courts before it becomes law was to eliminate the uncertainty which would result from proclamation of the bill before that time, since it would be challenged in the courts in any case.

"This is the first time we have placed any of our Social Credit legislation before the courts ourselves," Mr. Manning pointed out. "We have been brought into court by enemies who upset our legislation by finding legal technicalities which rendered it ineffective."

Mr. Manning spent over an hour explaining the terms of the Bill of Rights which was passed at the last session of the Legislature but which will not be proclaimed until it has been tested by the courts.

He outlined provisions of the bill which guarantee those fundamental rights of citizenship which are generally recognized to be inalienable and also discussed those rights in the economic field which he said made all the other freedoms possible.

HE DEFINED the Social Security position of the province as not a "handout" but as a right of citizens unable to find employment in our competitive market and of veterans who had gained the right of retirement at the age of 60 years. Youngsters under 19 were a priceless asset which should be cultivated by the use of educational and medical benefits, he said.

There should be little question as to the physical ability of the province to provide these benefits, Mr. Manning said. He suggested it also should be financially possible.

Germans Developed Infra-Red Phones

EVANSTON, Ill., May 8.—(AP)—The Germans and Japanese developed a system of short-range telephonic communication permitting their combat troops to converse by means of invisible rays of infra-red light. Northwestern University reported yesterday.

Resembling small searchlights mounted on tripods, the instruments were used to provide communication between outposts and frontline troops, and to bridge gorges and rivers.

THE SETS were known as the "German Lichtsprecher 250/150" and the "Japanese light beam telephone."

They carried a narrow beam of infra-red light, the instruments provided maximum security because the instrument that it would be detected by ordinary means. They also were free from static and ship-distance phenomena and employed no wires or antenna to be spotted by the enemy.

Minister Opposes Rights Bill Plea

OTTAWA, May 8.—(CP)—A request by John Diefenbaker, Quebec Liberal leader, to have a bill of rights included in a measure establishing a distinctive Canadian citizenship was turned down in the commons last night by State Secretary Martin.

AS CLAUSE by CLAUSE debated the citizenship bill was resumed, Mr. Diefenbaker asked through an amendment that a bill of rights be included in the measure. The bill of rights, among other things, would guarantee freedom of religion, freedom of speech, habeas corpus and the right of counsel for accused or suspects.

Mr. Martin said the substance of the amendment was already contained in the common law of this country. It dealt with civil rights which had under provincial jurisdiction. It would give no guarantee of rights not already guaranteed by the amendment would attach a guarantee of rights to the certificate of citizenship given naturalized citizens but no Canadian-born citizens and for these reasons could not accept the amendment.

Debate on the amendment was adjourned by Justice Minister St. Laurent.

IN MOVING the amendment, Mr. Diefenbaker urged the bill of rights provide:

1. Freedom of religion, freedom of speech and the right to peaceable assembly are assured.

2. Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended by parliament.

3. No one shall be required to give evidence before any tribunal or commission at any time if denied counsel or other constitutional safeguards.

E. David Fulton (PC-Kamloops) stressed the need for united efforts in defending the rights of citizenship.

There was only one way to guarantee those rights and that was through a bill of rights.

Distillers Give Grain to Needy

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(AP)—A group of 18 distillers pledged last night to donate 30,000,000 pounds of grain to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration as the industry's contribution toward alleviating famine, President General F. H. La Guardia announced the gift after meeting with the distillers to discuss the world food situation.

LONDON.—(CP)—Three men in a car stole three radios and a television signal generator valued at $5,000, after smashing their way through a window of a shop in West Green-road, Holloway, recently.

The province right now, Mr. Manning said, the man in the street has a good deal of inflation and the conduct of everyday business.

Since Canada is now undergoing a period of inflation and there is more money available as spending power than there is goods available for that money to purchase, it might even be necessary for the government to force contraction of credit until such time as the amount of purchasing power more closely balanced with the prices of goods available.

Points to Dangle Lifting Contingent

HAMILTON, May 8.—(CP)—mediate lifting of controls (CP)—disrupt retail shipments, and might drag the Canadian supply of goods which could be with higher prices the consumer. Can. Trade Minister Mackin said today.

MR. MACKINNON, in an address to the foreign trade conference, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, gave assurance that the government would be relaxed or lifted as soon as possible. He said that the government would not remove the controls of leadership from business.

It now is admitted by everyone that the state can assume the responsibility for employment at a high level, but that without the state accepting responsibility it cannot make this policy which also turns out to be a good thing, he said.

"A NEW OUTLOOK is shaping the economic life of our time," he said. "I wish to make it emphatically clear that as far as the government in Canada is concerned, its whole conception of the role to be taken by the state is based upon its belief in private enterprise as the best way to achieve expanding production and growing prosperity."

There is no mistake on this fundamental point. Everything the government has done and will do, designed to supplement private enterprise, not to replace it.

Mr. MacKinnon expressed belief that British markets would re-open if Canada's manufacturers and exporters could obtain the financial position of the United Kingdom improved and repeated the minister announced that effective to achieve expanding production and growing prosperity.

AS A PRACTICAL example of his department's policy on controls the minister announced that he would immediately no fee would be charged for export permits. It did not follow, however, that it would be immediately possible to issue permits more freely.

Canada's interest in the stability of Europe was not alone sentimental. The loan of more than $64,000,000 to countries apart from the United Kingdom, represented a stake in European recovery.

Turning to the south, Mr. MacKinnon spoke of the possibilities of trade in Latin American countries and disclosed that within the last few days Peru had indicated a desire to complete a trade agreement with Canada.

Russian Backing Sought by Arabs

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin. JERUSALEM, May 8.—(CP)—The Arab higher committee decided today to appeal through the Soviet embassy at Cairo to Premier Stalin for Russian support of Arabic opposition to the Anglo-American recommendations for Palestine.

THE HIGHER committee met for four hours today to deliberate what should be done in case the Anglo-American proposal that 100,000 Jews be admitted to Palestine is put into effect.

The committee decided to direct to Stalin through the Cairo embassy a copy of its letter sent earlier to Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee on the subject and appeal to Stalin for help.

THE LETTER to be sent to Stalin committed the Arabs to "oppose by all means" any attempt to carry out the Anglo-American report on Palestine. In it the Arabs said they would defend themselves and organize a "national struggle."

A spokesman for the committee, Dr. Izzat Tannous, said the letter also would be sent to other diplomatic envoys in Cairo.

THE ARAB committee decision followed the explosion of leaflets bombs in Tel Aviv. The pamphlets they contained urged a continued struggle for a Jewish state "on both sides of the Jordan."

U.S. Fails in Try To End Coal Strike

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(AP)—The government failed yesterday in an attempt to get 400,000 idle coal miners back on the job and end a 37-day strike which is progressively crippling the United States economy.

Both miners and operators made plain they did not expect any speedy settlement.

The union's 326-man policy committee voted to let John L. Lewis' original demands for a special welfare fund and a contract permitting foreigners to organize.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the union told reporters that Paul W. Fuller, government conciliator, had asked them to let him know what they would do.

THE WOULD operators be willing to pay $3,000,000 the miners claim is due them for overtime holiday pay?

If this sum is paid, would the miners be willing to state specifically what other demands they would make?

This representative said his group is unwilling to make any payments of any kind until it knows exactly what Mr. Lewis wants.

The union's only reply was: "The United Mine Workers have not received any proposal for a basis of settlement of the coal strike from anyone."

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

IT WAS eat and fete night Tuesday for the Independent all-stars, the only Edmonton hockey team which went to the top during the season just ended, taking the western intermediate championship in a memorable series at Vernon, B.C., after copping both the Alberta and prairie province titles.

The members of the team stick-named their way through a full-course dinner last night and later received a jacket and souvenir hockey stick pin along with a picture of the club.

IN ADDITION to providing the western champions this season, the Independent League has filled an important place in the city's hockey setup for the past two years, bridging the gap between junior and senior. Some of the players could have made the senior division had they so desired.

The league itself, president of which is Harvey Marples, with LeRoy Farmer as vice-president and Joe Milne secretary, is probably the most viable organization in the city and has well merited the excellent support it has received.

CAPT. JOHN BEATTY advises that word was received Tuesday from John Ducey to the effect that Flores of San Francisco had been signed.

In addition to being the all-city shortstop prior to entering the services in 1942, Flores was the leading hitter in the San Francisco city league.

That means a total of six men had been signed by Ducey during his trip to the west coast and further talent for the Edmonton circuit had been promised by Joe Devine, New York Yankee scout.

Manager Torrance of Seattle Mariners was arranging for other material. Ducey expects to leave Seattle today on the homeward trek.

AND REFERRING back to that famous $20,000 offer which the NHL was reported willing to pay annually to the CAHA for players turning professional—just who would have been eligible to participate?

Supposing for example, no players were invited to or cared to make the jump in any one year, how would the money be distributed? Or if any one or two went up, would the one or two clubs concerned be entitled to the entire sum?

Possibly the $20,000 in the case of player going to the NHL or $10,000 payment from minor pro leagues may be excessive, but it does seem that the flat sum per player, as proposed by the CAHA, is the most logical way to approach the subject. A blanket payment would mean added grief for the CAHA.

Program Outlined By Communities

Federation of Community Leagues outlined their summer program Tuesday night at a meeting in the Civic Block. Plans were made to form fastball, baseball and soccer leagues.

It was decided to run leagues for intermediate and juvenile baseball, intermediate, juvenile and midget men's fastball, intermediate and junior girls' fastball, intermediate and juvenile soccer.

A large number of entries have already been received, but it is hoped to increase the number in all branches. Deadline for all entries is May 20, when another meeting will be held at the Civic Block. Entries may be turned in at that meeting or be sent to Mickey McGuire anytime before the meeting. It is expected that some of the leagues will open May 24 and the others shortly afterwards.

Those communities which have already signified their intention of entering teams in some or all leagues are: Westmount, Danvegan, Highlands, Cromdale, Beverly, Rosedale, Riverdale, North Edmonton. The meeting decided that other organizations who are willing to sponsor teams will also be allowed to enter clubs in any branch of sports the community leagues are organizing.

In addition to organizing sports, three area conveners were named. They are: Bill Kastig, for South Side; Jim Cowan, for east end; Ed Orchin, for west end.

Red Catcher Holds Mark, 233 Games

NEW YORK, May 8.—(AP)—Catcher Ray Mueller's endurance streak of 233 consecutive National League games ended yesterday. But his Cincinnati teammates made up for the rusting of the Iron man and edged out New York Giants 2-1—mainly on the strength of Joe Beggs' eight-hit hurling.

Mueller's is an all-time record for the National League although he still is 79 games shy of the American League mark held by Cleveland's Frankie Hayes who completed a string of 312 games two weeks ago.

The stocky catcher said he wanted "to play only when I can help the club and not for the sake of a record."

HE BEGAN HIS record in 1943, being behind the plate in all of his club's 62 games, in 155 games in 1944 but was in the army in 1945. He appeared in the first 16 games this year.

Mueller was benched yesterday for light hitting and his successor Ray Lamanno collected two singles in three trips to the plate but neither hit figured in the Red Sox scoring.

Right-hander Beggs chalked up his third victory without a defeat. The Reds hopped on Bob Carpenter, making his first appearance since 1942, for a run in the first inning on doubles by Grady Hatton and Al Likke.

THEY PICKED UP their second tally in the fifth when outfielder Goody Rosen fell going after Lonnie Frey's line drive to rightfield and Frey crossed the plate before the ball was recovered.

In the only other National League contest, Cardinals defeated Boston Braves 6-4 to take over the league's leadership before 14,824 fans at St. Louis last night.

Cards drove Johnny Sain from the mound with a five-run spree in the first inning and coasted out for the remainder of the game.

Versatile second baseman Red Schoendienst led the assault on first Boston pitchers with four safeties including a double in five trips.

In the American League Detroit Tigers defeated Philadelphia Athletics 7-2 while Boston Red Sox edged out St. Louis Browns 10-6 in a 14-inning contest and Washington Senators eked out a 2-1 victory over Cleveland Indians.

Mrs. Joe Milne was also presented with a watch for her secretarial work during the season.

Independents End Successful Year

Independent All-Stars, western Canada intermediate hockey champions for the 1945-46 season, concluded the season's activities Tuesday evening at a banquet and dance held at the Club Roosevelt.

Harvey Marples, president of the Independent Hockey League, was in the chair.

All members of the team attended with their guests. Seated at the head table were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Marples; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Art Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Milne.

Among the other guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith, Bill White, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Derrington.

All members of the team were presented with medals for winning the D. E. Black trophy, emblematic of the Alberta intermediate championship, from Birks in Calgary; hockey stick tip clips, jackets and pictures of the team by the Independent League; "Derry" Derrington, Roy Farmer, vice-president and Art Potter were called on to make the presentations. Team members receiving these were: Colin Kilburn, Billy Dowse, Ted Mottershead, Bobby Graham, Joe Milne, secretary, Benny Klingspoon, Bob Causgrove, Russ Klesko, Ken Cox, Bill McLennan, Roy Farmer, vice-president; Harvey Marples, president; Louis Holmes, Dave Haire, Jimmy Graham, coach; Len Heil, Jim Fleming, Allan Ritch, Bob David, Bob Ma-

Chicago Cubs Intend to Keep Baseball a Daytime Sport

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO, May 8.—(AP)—Let all the other major league club owners thump a "night-and-day" tune on their cash registers, P. K. Wrigley says baseball is a daytime sport and his Chicago Cubs are going to keep it that way.

Wrigley, who nearly installed arclights at Wrigley field during the war, said Tuesday he has wrapped those plans in mothballs.

In the American League, Boston Red Sox recently voted to put up lamps in 1947. Thus, Detroit Tigers in the Junior circuit and Chicago in the National are the only lightless contenders among the 16 major league entries.

"There is only one thing might make me change my mind, and that would be if the public demanded night baseball," said Wrigley. "Our attendance, however, indicates that fans want their baseball and sun shine at the same time."

In eight home appearances this season, including last Sunday's doubleheader with the lowly Philadelphia Phils which drew a record crowd of 45,365 fans, the Cubs have played before nearly 180,000 paid admissions. A Saturday game with the St. Louis Cards April 29 attracted 40,887.

The Cubs were in the process of tory over Cleveland Indians. The Chicago-New York game was rained out.

Trophy Donated For Canadian Open

WINNIPEG, May 8.—(CP)—A distinctly Canadian trophy designed by W. J. Phillips, Winnipeg, will go to the winner of the $10,000 open golf tournament to be held on the Niakwa course here in August. It will be known as the Gerard Kennedy trophy, named after the 1942 winner of the Manitoba open who donated it.

Today's Sport Parade

NEW YORK, May 8.—(BUP)—Dave (Boo) Ferriss, a big, curly-haired guy from Mississippi, was well on his way today toward proving three items which might mean the American League pennant to the Boston Red Sox.

They were:

1. That baseball's "sophomore jinx" is a bunch of hokum.
2. That all of the game's wartime wonders weren't simply stop-gaps.
3. And that 76 cents spent wisely may do more than millions spent well.

Ferriss is the Boston pitcher they had tagged as the jinx's victim for 1946. The casualty last season was Bill Voiselle of the Giants. So now was he in the other league, and with the finger pointed at Ferriss because of his sensational freshman year after coming out of the army.

DAVE WON his first eight starts last season before the asthma, which caused him to be charged, struck again. That didn't, they said. He was sure to be the sophomore victim.

The 25-year-old "Ice Cream Kid" started out this spring as if maybe he was going to prove the jinx right. In both of his first trips to the mound he failed to win and other pitchers resented the games for the now-or-never Red Sox.

But in his third try, Ferriss tossed a six-hit shutout against the A's for a 7-0 triumph and came back with a four-hitter to dust off the Tigers. Then, yesterday, he beat the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 5. He had a rough time of it, too, giving up three runs in the first inning, but it only made his performance more impressive as he stayed in there and finally won out.

"THE CREDIT goes to the team, of course," Dave declared modestly. "The way that Dom DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Johnny Pesky and all the others are hitting is the real reason why we're winning."

But the rest of the team—and rival batters—will tell you that the Red Sox are staying right there on top on the merits of their tossing, too, and one of the best is Ferriss. And with the record to date of three wins and no losses, Red figures to blast that "jinx."

If he can accomplish this feat, Ferriss naturally will be taking care of the second plank in his three-way program. Many critics held last season that he simply was good against a bunch of broken-down old-timers and young slugs until the stars came marching home. When the big guns came back, they said, Ferriss would be lucky to last in the higher minors.

WELL, HE'S STILL there, and going mighty fine at the moment. Good enough to tickle the fancy and rouse the hopes of owner Tom Yawkey, the millionaire who is friendly enough to be a poor man. Tom spent enough to pauperize an ordinary millionaire in trying to get the talent to win the American League pennant. Which makes it seem like poetic justice could erupt how cheaply he got Ferriss.

"Take this boy," wired farm club manager Nemo Leibold of Louisville.

"Okay," the Red Sox replied. That simply they got Ferriss, who eats ice cream after each victory. And he'll just keep going as he is now. Yawkey will be mighty glad to buy him all the frozen custard he can eat. It would be a mighty sweet way to win that long-sought pennant.

Police Holding Stable Watchman

CHICAGO, May 8.—(AP)—Police said Monday night that a watchman at the Arlington Park station of Mrs. Elizabeth Graham had signed a statement that he went to sleep after turning on an electric heater in the barn housing 30 thoroughbreds last Wednesday night. A fire which swept the barn destroyed 23 of the 30 race horses, with an estimated loss of $500,000.

Officers said the watchman, Gilbert Jones of New York, signed a formal statement saying he became intoxicated during the night and went to sleep in another part of the barn. He is being held on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Footballers Busy Designing Outfits for Coming Season

By MEL SUFRIN

VANCOUVER, May 8.—(CP)—It may sound like an odd comparison, but in a way the footballers are like the fashion designers.

Now that spring is well entrenched, the style setters are turning avid thoughts to what outfits mid-lady will wear next fall, while at the same time the guardians of the gridiron are working industriously at moulding the piskin outfits that Mr. Sportfan will view when the leaves start to turn cool.

FORESIGHT is another word for what the chiefs of the western interprovincial league are using. Newly organized with teams from Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Regina and Winnipeg, there seems to be an air of determination to show the east a worthy opponent for the far distant Grey cup final.

Edmonton, coached by Steve Olander, started spring training a couple of days ago, as did Winnipeg Blue Bombers under Jack West. About 70 candidates were in the in the Manitoba capital. Calgary Stampeder workouts got underway Monday night with Dean Griffing in charge, and Regina has drawn up its plans for the coming season.

In Vancouver activity is still quiet. The club is looking for sponsors, apparently the only worry it has. Confidence is well expressed in that they get the backers the Grey cup is a cinch. Sounds easy.

CIRCUIT SMATTERINGS:

Vancouver's Kenny Lindsay, Canadian bantam weight champion, is given a fair chance of defeating Manuel Ortiz, holder of the world crown, when they meet in Hollywood May 18. Lindsay dropped a close one to Ortiz in Portland before he joined the RCAF a couple of years back. His manager figures Kenny has definitely improved since then while Ortiz has slipped. The Canadian is doing his training in the film capital.

Joan Pease, famed as the fiery packchaser for Montreal Canadiens, is drawing a lot of attention as a wrestler across the prairies. Blessed with a natural talent for losing his temper, he ran into a lot of trouble during his hockey playing days. However, that trait should prove quite profitable in his present profession in which it is quite legal and even a good idea to know how to lose one's temper.

During CABA sessions in Vancouver a question came up in which President Tom Lockhart of the U.S. Amateur Hockey Association was asked "what does your constitution say?" Constitution? Gosh, we lost that years ago!

The ROAD AHEAD

By HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

THE amendments to the Veterans' Land Act, permitting financial assistance be given for the purchase of livestock and equipment, to veterans who are renting land, or buying it under private agreements of sale, have been completed and made public. In its new form the act will be of great benefit to many men who did not wish to buy land from the director.

THESE NEW regulations will be of special benefit to men who have inherited, or taken over, their father's farms, and to men who have leased farms. They will be of particular value to those men who have leased farms in areas where land is so expensive as to make it impossible for them to acquire suitable units with the $5,000 provided for the purchase of farms under the act. It is expected that in Alberta, these new regulations will help to solve the problem facing those men who wished to settle in irrigated districts in the southern part of the province.

IN ADDITION to the loan for the purchase of livestock and equipment, the director is also authorized

Manhole Covers Reported Missing

Police are searching for the person, or persons, who removed a manhole cover from the centre of the street at the intersection of 102 street and 100 avenue early Wednesday morning. The cover was located by city police about 100 yards away from the hole and replaced.

Police officials Wednesday morning stressed the danger of such pranks, pointing out that the uncovered hole was a very grave danger to both motorists and pedestrians.

Artisans Wanted For U.S. Projects

Bricklayers, plasterers and stone masons are in brisk demand in the United States and Canada. If enquiries for these journeymen to officials of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers International Union are any indication.

Within the last few days Ald. Sidney Parsons, executive member of the union here, received requests from Billings, Montana, for 10 bricklayers, and 10 plasterers. Sixty day's work was guaranteed the bricklayers, and from two to three months' guarantee was given to plasterers.

A call for 25 bricklayers was received from Portland, Oregon, and 10 stone masons are required by the Canadian contracting firm of Smith Brothers and Wilson for work on a project at the University of Saskatchewan. Masons going on the University of Saskatchewan project are guaranteed at least one year of work.

Health Officer Urges Clean City

Support of Edmonton's health department was thrown behind the Junior Chamber of Commerce city beautification campaign Wednesday when Dr. C. M. Little, city medical officer of health, endorsed the current week-long drive.

IN A SPECIAL message for the occasion, Dr. Little said in part: "A city cannot be really beautiful unless it is clean; and a clean city has taken a long step toward protecting the health of its citizens by that very cleanliness. So it is that the health department of our city is keenly interested in the beautification campaign sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce."

IN THE EARLY DAYS of this century, when little attention was paid to the cleanliness of most cities, piles of manure and many other varieties of filth were common even in larger communities. Such material proves a fruitful reservoir for flies, and these have been proven a common carrier of many diseases. Particularly is this so in connection with the disease known as typhoid fever, and improvement in sanitary cleanliness has been reflected in a great improvement in the health and death in this younger group.

WHILE OUR PRESENT dire need for proper housing remains, it is impossible to get rid of the many buildings which have really outlived their normal usefulness for this purpose; but in the meantime there is no reason why these premises cannot be kept clean, and there is no reason why we cannot proceed with the general plan of beautification of our city.

Former Edmonton Resident Is Dead

To Increase Size Of School Halls

Assembly halls in two elementary schools to be built this year by the Edmonton Public School Board will be increased in size to permit their use by residents in the district for social and recreational purposes.

The recommendation of a special ad hoc committee is accepted by city council.

THE SPECIAL committee was appointed following a recommendation from Maxwell C. Dewar, city architect, that city council give consideration to the principle of enlarging the school halls in order to provide recreational and social facilities for residents in the districts the schools are to be built.

The committee recommended that assembly halls in elementary schools to be built in the enlargement of the size of these auditoriums would be approximately $6,000.

Committee members were told that the cost of construction of the two elementary schools would be $65,000.

Start on Tour

Brig. R. Raymer, division commander of the Salvation Army, and Mrs. Brig. Raymer left the city Wednesday afternoon for a week's tour of Salvation Army Corps in Southern Alberta. They will attend the United Home League rally being held in Calgary Thursday evening.

Officially Open Horse Show Today

The annual spring horse show, sponsored by the Edmonton Exhibition Association, opened Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. with some of the finest horses ever exhibited here taking part in the different competitions.

CHARLES E. WILSON, managing director of the association, stated Wednesday that the entries this year, both in number and in the class of horse entered, are greatly ahead of former years. He said that the finest hunters bred in the three prairie provinces will be on view in the different jumping events, and spectacular performances may be looked forward to by all attending during the four days of the show.

Judging started on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will continue through the four days of the show. Evening performances are scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

THE FOND HOPES of some boy or girl to possess a pony will be realized on Saturday afternoon.

The Kingston club, sponsor of the Edmonton Exhibition Association's annual spring horse show, is giving away to some lucky boy or girl attending the Saturday afternoon performance at the Arena, a five-year-old Darimour pony.

This pony, a beautifully marked bay with black mane and tail, was bred by F. G. Colroy of Wainwright, and has been with Briarcrest Stables in Edmonton for the past 18 months. He is thoroughly broken, gentle, and well trained. He stands 13 1/2 hands high and will make a great companion for the boy or girl lucky enough to win him.

THE SATURDAY afternoon program at the arena has been specially designed for children, with many of the boys' and girls' riding classes scheduled for the three hours of special entertainment to be provided for the city's youth.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION

What do you think of the Edmonton and District Musical Festival which is held annually in our city?

THE ANSWERS

JAMES P. HARGREAVES, clerk: A great thing educationally and has a tremendous value toward promoting talent in the field of music. These children perform here and receive excellent criticism from expert judges which helps to teach the children. I have known several of them regularly and enjoy them year after year.

FRANK NICHOLAS, insurance agent: Marvellous—only the people of the city should give them more support. A good thing to do on the regular programs are worth a crowded house.

MRS. H. McDONALD, stenographer: Music festivals are much more helpful for children than a lot of other things they could be doing. People could help the children a great deal by creating greater interest in these annual festivals.

Model-T Races Again Arranged

Sponsored jointly by the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Lions club of Edmonton, a Model-T race meet will be held at the Exhibition grounds May 24 starting at 1:30 p.m. under general chairmanship of Lion Wilson Faulder. It is expected that 20 or 25 racing cars will be matched in the city's events.

Gyro Playgrounds Discussed at Meet

Discussion of the organization's three playgrounds for children of Edmonton and district in this city featured the regular luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Macdonald hotel of the Gyro club. A committee was appointed to survey city authorities with regard to future operation of the playgrounds. Entertainment was under direction of W. Stanley Ross.

Garden Hose Thefts

A large number of city residents are reporting the theft of garden hose, lawn mowers and garden tools, police officials said Wednesday and pointed out that the only way to safeguard such equipment was to lock it up overnight.

No Protests Here On Car Regulations

Edmonton used car dealers insist that new regulations covering their operations, which were announced Tuesday by the federal government, will make little difference to them as they have remained consistently within price levels set by the previous rulings of the prices board. This was learned in the course of a survey conducted on Wednesday morning by The Edmonton Bulletin.

Dealers were referred to a Canadian Press dispatch from Toronto which stated that used car dealers in that city had threatened to close their doors unless there was some change in the regulations which said that used cars must be sold for cash at ceiling prices or less without demanding a trade-in.

EDMONTON PRICES board officials also report that there has been no sign of protest from local dealers. It is explained that the new regulations are only a simplification of previous price rulings on used cars.

"I really couldn't see much change from what was in the original order," the sales manager of one prominent dealer said.

Asked if there was any market in the automobile field in Edmonton, he said: "There is no more black market in Edmonton than in any other city."

PRESSED FOR AN explanation of that statement, he said that the only black market in cars in Edmonton existed in sales from seller to buyer directly, and insisted that there were no infractions of price ceilings on cars passing through dealers' hands.

"We have always sold at ceiling or less than ceiling prices," another dealer said, "but there is certainly a black market in Edmonton in cars."

All cars manufactured since 1932 are selling at higher than ceiling prices, this dealer pointed out. Used car lots get few opportunities to buy vehicles of this type as the latter lets it be known that the car is for sale, without advertising.

A PRIVATE DEAL is then made in which the buyer pays anywhere up to $300 more than the listed ceiling price and does so quite willingly.

"Dealers don't get many chances to buy any late model cars," this dealer said regretfully. "The seller is not going to sell to a dealer at ceiling prices, when he can get so much more otherwise."

An official of the prices board explained that unless a car is advertised for sale at ceiling prices, the dealer can find witnesses to the effect that the seller insisted on higher ceiling prices. There is little that can be done. Evidence must be of a type admissible in court, the official pointed out, and in too many cases evidence produced means only one man's word against another's.

HOWEVER, the buyer who pays more than the legal price for a car is as guilty of infraction of the law as is the seller and is equally subject to prosecution.

Generous Help Is Appreciated

Gratitude for the "generous help" given British ex-prisoners of war by the Canadian Legion War Services fund was expressed by a letter received Wednesday by Mrs. W. Patterson, convener of the reception committee at Edmonton, from J. W. Jenkinson, district supervisor of the National Council of Student Veterans in Canada. Mr. Jenkinson, in his letter, passed along the "sincere thanks" of Malcolm MacDonald, high commissioner for the United Kingdom at Ottawa. Mr. MacDonald wrote, in part: "That manifestation of your friendship with us, of your faith in our common cause, was a constant source of courage and inspiration to us both at home and abroad."

States Mankind Is at Crossroads

Man today is at the crossroads of his fate, A. P. Young, well known British electrical engineer, inventor, industrial manager and author, told a luncheon meeting of the Men's Club at the Macdonald Hotel on Tuesday. Speaking of man learning to dominate his environment in an industrial and mechanized age, he said that the root of unrest in the world today lay in the fact that we have lost our happy human relationship as brothers in the world family.

HE EXPRESSED the conviction that the solution lay not in the realms of science and mechanization but in further education.

Speaking of his own country, Mr. Young said, "Britain today is on the threshold of the greatest period in history. It is facing up to fundamental issues with hard work and sacrifice. The world would do well to copy her educational and social advances."

He went on to mention the determination of the people of Britain to combine industrial and political democracy. Their first step in that direction was taken at the last general election.

"I believe," the speaker said, "that a great spiritual change is needed in the hearts of the English-speaking peoples in North America, if they are to advance to a better and happier world of living."

He spoke of the world of industry and the rapidly with which the scientific era has unfolded from the time of Watt to the discovery of the unleashing of atomic energy.

He stressed the interdependence of the four basic divisions of industry today—growing, mining, manufacturing and moving things needed to support life and maintain the community.

"SEVENTY PER CENT OF the world's working population belong to the growing and mining divisions," the speaker said. He pointed out that the kind of industrial management given these laborers is of supreme importance. Political and industrial democracy that recognizes the supreme worth of the human personality must be applied both in industry management and in our governments.

"Democracy," Mr. Young said, "is now facing its greatest test, the issue of full employment." He spoke of the Beveridge plan in Britain as being the safeguard against social insecurity and unemployment.

Mr. Young paid tribute to the men and women of Britain who worked in factories during the long war years and who still are making sacrifices in strict rationing regulations.

"WHEN THE HISTORY of this age is written," he said, "the greatest men and women will be those who have kept the homes of Britain running."

Mr. Young was introduced by Hugh Gourlay, chairman of the meeting. Also seated at the head table were Mayor Harry Ainlay, Kenneth Hutchinson, Walter Macdonald and Ralph Haynes.

Pass Appointments To Local Schools

Sixteen appointments to the Edmonton public and high school staff were approved at a meeting of the school board held Tuesday night.

THE APPOINTMENTS had all been recommended by Superintendent of Schools Ross S. Sheppard and were made necessary in several instances by resignations requiring vice-principals in schools with more than 10 rooms.

Following are the new appointments:

Miss L. Knight, hard of hearing class; F. G. McGoey, vice-principal of Eastwood high school; E. Carrough, vice-principal of McDougall high school; Duncan Innes, vice-principal of Strathcona high school; H. A. McFarland, vice-principal of Victoria high school; W. L. Smith, vice-principal of Westleigh high school.

G. K. Brady, vice-principal of Garneau school; J. V. Newlove, vice-principal of McCauley school; N. H. Cuthbertson, vice-principal of McKay Avenue school; B. W. Shearer, vice-principal of Spruce Avenue school; W. P. Wagner, guidance counselor; Miss E. Peterson, teacher of opportunity class; W. E. Robinson, part-time supervisor of industrial arts; Miss B. L. Williams, part-time supervisor of home economics; Miss A. Stewart, vice-principal at Ruthersford school; Miss H. Inkster, vice-principal at North Edmonton school.

There were 57 applicants for the 16 posts, the report of Mr. Sheppard revealed.

Extension of one year, providing they are able to pass medical examinations of the board's medical staff, will be granted the following school caretakers:

N. Colville, F. L. Saunders, J. Graham and T. A. Dickson.

THE RECOMMENDATION was made by the property committee. It was announced that superintendent of the city plant, J. M. McAfee, and R. J. McAfee, a caretaker, will retire on June 30.

The board accepted with regret the resignation of Leonard Longdon, a former night fireman on the staff.

Leave of absence was approved for H. E. Tanner to attend the annual convention of the Canadian Legion in Quebec City from May 16 to May 23.

Adjudicators Take Over Spotlight At Session of Musical Festival

Adjudicators played the main part in Tuesday evening's session of the Edmonton and District Musical Festival held in McDougall United Church. Sydney Risk, the education judge, gave a pantomime of the actions of two women who sat in front of him in a theatre. While an organ recital was given by Dr. Charles Peaker, who is judging the musical portion of the festival.

PRIOR TO THE performances by the judges three festival classes were judged. The Edmonton College Kindergarten, under the direction of Irene Baribeau, presented its rhythmic ensemble and were granted $5 marks.

The 33 children in the ensemble were dressed in appropriate costumes, and as the judge described it "they watched well."

Grandin and Oliver schools then presented their rhythmic ensembles. Grandin being a little more uniform took top honors with 85 points. Oliver followed with 83. Warm praise was given by Dr. Peaker to the work of the young conductors, who were both under ten years old.

IN THE OPEN piano class for Bach selections, Dr. Peaker chose not to grade the contestants. He asked the contestants try again next year. Some of the candidates forgot their pieces. The adjudicator described Bach as being very hard to play.

Keen Competition At Music Festival

Keen competition featured Tuesday afternoon's sessions of the Edmonton and District Musical Festival which continued in the Masonic Temple and McDougall church.
